

they are of opinion that if the section has better to be included in the Book on Things, in order to have more general a bearing;

b) to cancel the whole Chapter on Registration except first section and to call the attention of the Department upon the advantage to have a new Amendment to the Land Act published.

Next meeting on the 16th. inst.

-----