re: Section 807

I

The first paragraph of section 807 purports to give a definition of a Commission Agent; the sections referred to were sections 212 of the Japanese Commercial Code and 24 of the French Commercial Code which are about the same. Their wording is perhaps very concise and the Committee of Redaction submit a more explanatory draft for the first paragraph of section 807, as follows:

"A Commission Agent is a person whose business is to act in his own name for selling or buying goods belonging to another person or for undertaking other commercial transactions on such another person's account."

ILLUSTRATION. - I. - A, a merchant in Bangkok, has in his store precious stones for sale which have been sent to him by N who lives in Chantaboon. When A sells precious stones to his customer B, the sale is for the benefit of N. However A himself is responsible to N for all consequences of the sale as if he was the owner, unless A has specified that he was acting for N living in Chantaboon.
