

Section 3

Contracts made in the conditions specified in section 1 are contracts of hire-purchase, notwithstanding any other denomination which may be used by the parties.

If it appears from the contract that there has been a transfer of ownership at the time when the contract was made the parties shall be deemed to have made a contract of sale.