

granted to the injured person upon the compensation, as explained in Capitant's book. If we have to create a privilege in this case. we meet this difficulty that our system of "Special Preferential Rights" is already promulgated, with a list in section 380 C.C.C. Please examine if the provisions of sections KK and LL are not sufficient to expressly cover the right of the injured person without creating a new privilege for his special case ?)