

494. - The right of redemption cannot be exercised later than:

(1) Ten years after the time of the sale in case of immovable property.

(2) ~~one~~ three years after the time of the sale in case of movable property.

495. - If a longer period is provided in the contract, it shall be reduced to ten years and ~~six~~ three years respectively.

496. - If a shorter period than ten years or ~~one~~ three years is provided in the contract, the time cannot be afterwards extended.