

TITLE XV.

AGENCY.

CHAPTER I.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

797
903. - Agency is a contract whereby a person, called the agent, has authority to act for another person, called the principal, and agrees so to act.

Agency may be express or implied.

798
903-bis. - If a transaction is by law required to be made in writing, the appointment of an agent for such transaction must also be made in writing.

904

905

906

(Deleted)

907

908

909