

819 990. - The agent is entitled to retain any property of the principal in his possession by reason of agency until he has been paid all that is due to him on account of agency.

~~Substitution of agent and agent~~
~~agent~~
 820 992. - The principal is bound to third persons by the acts which the agent or the subagent has ^{done} ~~made~~ within the scope of his authority ~~and in the name of the principal~~ by virtue of his agency.

821 992. - A person who ~~expressly or impliedly represents~~ holds out another person as his agent or knowingly allows another person to ~~be represented~~ hold himself out as his agent, is liable to third persons in good faith in the same way as if such person was his agent.

822 994. - If an agent does an act in excess of his authority, but the third person had reasonable grounds, arising from the act of the principal, to believe that it was within his authority, the provisions of the foregoing Section apply correspondingly.