

860

24

~~860~~ 860 — The obligations resulting from a current account are extinguished by prescription five years after the balance was struck.

860 — The difference, if not paid, bears interest from the day when the balance was struck.

