

1096 bis. - The drawer or an indorser may specify a person who is to accept or pay in case of need at the place of payment.

A bill of exchange may, under the conditions hereafter set forth, be accepted or paid by a person who intervenes for any person who has signed it.

The intervener may be a third person, even the drawee, or the person already liable on the bill, except only the acceptor.

The intervener is bound to give without delay notice of his intervention to the party for whom he has intervened.

1 Acceptance for honour

1097. - There may be acceptance by intervention in all cases where the holder has the right of recourse before maturity on a bill which is capable of acceptance.

The holder may refuse an acceptance by intervention, even when it is offered by a person designated to accept or pay in case of need.

If he permits the acceptance he loses his right of recourse before maturity against the parties liable to him.
