

1067

1183.—If a partner acts contrary to the provisions of ~~the~~ section 1181, the registered partnership is entitled to claim from him all the profits which he has made or compensation for the injury which the registered partnership has suffered thereby.

Such claim cannot be entered earlier than one year after date of contravention.

The provisions of this section are without prejudice to the rights of the remaining partners to demand the dissolution of the partnership.

1184

(Deleted)

1068

1185.—The liability of a partner in a registered partnership in respect to obligations incurred by the partnership before he ceased to be a member of such partnership, ^{incurred by partnership} is limited to a period of five years after he ceased to be a member.

1069

1186.—In addition to the cases provided by Section 1185, a registered partnership is dissolved if it becomes bankrupt.

1070

1187.—The creditor of an obligation due by a registered partnership is entitled, as soon as the partnership is in default, to demand performance of the obligation from any of the partners.