

29 -

1239 - The promoters of the company ~~shall~~ jointly and unlimitedly liable for all obligations and disbursements not approved by the statutory meeting; even if approved they remain so liable until registration

30 -

~~1240 - Upon the registration of a company, the company is deemed to be a company limited by shares, and the shareholders of whom it is composed, for the purpose of the provisions of the Companies Act, 1928.~~

1114
1241 - After a company is registered, a subscriber of shares cannot enter a claim for cancellation by the Court of his subscription on the ground of mistake, duress or fraud.

1115
1242 - If the name inserted in a memorandum is identical with the name of an existing registered company or with the name inserted in a registered memorandum, or so nearly resembling as to be likely to deceive the public, any interested person can enter a claim for compensation against the promoters of the company and can ask for an order from the Court that the name be changed.

Upon such order being made, the new name must be registered in the place of the former name and the certificate of registration must be altered accordingly.

1116
1243 - Any person is entitled to obtain from any company a copy of its memorandum and regulations, if any, on payment of a sum not exceeding one baht.

31 - ~~1244 -~~ (Deleted)