

PART VI. - REMOVAL OF DEFUNCT COMPANIES
FROM REGISTER.

146
(1) Where the registrar of companies has reasonable cause to believe that a company is not carrying on business or in operation, he shall send to the company by post a letter inquiring whether the company is carrying on business or in operation.

(2) If the registrar does not within one month of sending the letter receive any answer thereto, he shall within fourteen days after the expiration of the month send to the company by post a registered letter referring to the first letter, and stating that no answer thereto has been received, and that if an answer is not received to the second letter within one month from the date thereof, a notice will be published ~~in the Gazette~~ with a view to striking the name of the company off the register.

(3) If the registrar either receives an answer from the company to the effect that it is not carrying on business or in operation, or does not within one month after sending the second letter receive any answer, he may publish in ~~the Gazette~~ in the London Gazette and send to the company by ~~registered~~ registered post, a notice that at the expiration of three months from the date of that notice the name of the company mentioned therein will, unless
