

66 - 1429 - (Deleted)
N.B. - The provisions of this chapter are not applicable to associations registered as a company.

TITLE XXIII.

ASSOCIATIONS.

1274
1430.— A contract of association is a contract whereby several persons agree to unite for a common undertaking other than that of sharing profits.

1275
1431.— Every association must have regulations and must be registered.

1276
1432.— The regulations must specify, at least :
(1) The name of the association.
(2) Its object.
(3) The address of its principal office.
(4) Rules for the admission and exclusion of members.
(5) Rules for the management of the association by committees, directors or otherwise.

1277
1433.— The application for registration must be made in writing and signed by three of the members of the association at least. It must be accompanied by three copies of the regulations.

67 - 1434 - (Deleted)

1278
1435.— The Registration must be made at the Registration office of that part of the Kingdom where the principal office of the association is situated. Any alterations subsequently made in the registered particulars, as well as any other matters ordered to be registered by this Title must be registered at the same place.