

If several persons do the act specified in the advertisement, the person who does it first is entitled to receive the reward.

If several persons do the act at the same time, each of them is entitled to receive an equal share in the reward. But if the reward cannot by its nature be divided, or if according to the advertisement one person only is to receive it, the person to receive it must be designated by lot.

2. — DEFECTIVE CONSENT.

68. — Consent is defective if given under a mistake as to an essential element of the contract.

ILLUSTRATION. — A, a merchant in Bangkok, has two launches, an old one named N and a new one named X. At the time when he is out of Bangkok B sends a telegram offering to buy the launch X for 10,000 baht. In consequence of a clerical error committed at the telegraph office, the telegram delivered to A bears N instead of X. A answers by telegram : "offer accepted". A's consent is defective.

69. — Consent given under a mistake as to an essential element of the contract is not defective if the party whose consent was so given could have avoided the mistake by exercising such care as may be expected from a person of ordinary prudence.

A mere clerical error shall be corrected.
