

TITLE II. MANAGEMENT OF AFFAIRS WITHOUT A MANDATE.

88. — Management of affairs without a mandate occurs when a person acts for another without his request or without being bound by law to do so.

89. — The manager must immediately notify the principal that he is acting for him.

No notification is necessary if the principal knows of it.

90. — The manager is bound to act for the principal with such care as may be expected from a person of ordinary prudence.

91. — The manager is bound to continue to act until the principal or his heirs can act.

92. — If the manager has undertaken to act although he knew or ought to have known that such undertaking was contrary to the will of the principal, the following rules apply:

1) The principal is not bound to third persons, by the acts done by the manager.

TITLE II.

MANAGEMENT OF AFFAIRS WITHOUT A MANDATE.

88.—Management of affairs without a mandate occurs when a person acts for another without his request or without being bound by law to do so.

89.—The manager must immediately notify the principal that he is acting for him.

No notification is necessary if the principal knows of it.

90.—The manager is bound to act for the principal with such care as may be expected from a person of ordinary prudence.

91.—The manager is bound to continue to act until the principal or his heirs can act.

92.—If the manager has undertaken to act although he knew or ought to have known that such undertaking was contrary to the will of the principal, the following rules apply :

1) The principal is not bound to third persons, by the acts done by the manager.

2) The manager is liable to the principal for all the consequences of his intervention, even consequences due to force majeure.

3) The principal is not bound to reimburse the manager for the advances made or expenses incurred except in so far as he has been enriched thereby.

93. — The fact that the manager has undertaken to act contrary to the will of the principal shall not be taken into consideration in any case in which a duty imposed on the principal in the public interest would not be fulfilled in due time except for such intervention.

94. — If an act of management has for its object the averting of an imminent danger which threatens the principal, the manager is liable to the principal for the consequences of his act in so far only as they are due to his fault.

95. — If the manager has ~~not~~ undertaken to act ~~[not]~~ contrary to the will of the principal, but has failed to act with proper care, the following rules apply:

1) The principal is bound to third persons by the acts done by the manager.

2) The manager is liable to the principal for the consequences of his misconduct.

3) If advances have been made or expenses incurred by the manager, the principal is bound to reimburse them only in so far as he has been enriched thereby.

2) The manager is liable to the principal for all the consequences of his intervention, even consequences due to force majeure.

3) The principal is not bound to reimburse the manager for the advances made or expenses incurred except in so far as he has been enriched thereby.

93.—The fact that the manager has undertaken to act contrary to the will of the principal shall not be taken into consideration in any case in which a duty imposed on the principal in the public interest would not be fulfilled in due time except for such intervention.

94.—If an act of management has for its object the averting of an imminent danger which threatens the principal, the manager is liable to the principal for the consequences of his act in so far only as they are due to his fault.

95.—If the manager has ~~not~~ undertaken to act ^{not} ~~con~~trary to the will of the principal, but has failed to act with proper care, the following rules apply :

1) The principal is bound to third persons by the acts done by the manager.

2) The manager is liable to the principal for the consequences of his misconduct.

3) If advances have been made or expenses incurred by the manager, the principal is bound to reimburse them only in so far as he has been enriched thereby.