

If there is no custom, the prestations must be made in such order as is required by the nature of the obligation.

ILLUSTRATION. — I. — A sends goods to B through C, a carrier. The freight and accessories are to be paid by B. Under this Code C is entitled to retain the goods as long as the freight and accessories are not paid. The reciprocal obligation (payment of freight and delivery of goods) must be performed in the order provided by law, that is to say C is not bound to deliver the goods until B has paid the freight.

II. — B, a banker, agrees to advance money to A on condition that A gives a security for it. The banker is not bound to advance money until security is given, for the nature of the contract requires that the banker should have security before he advances money.

[Part] VI. — APPROPRIATION.

251. — When a debtor is bound by several obligations to one creditor, and a prestation made as performance is not sufficient to satisfy all these obligations, such prestation must be appropriated.

252. — The person performing can, at the time of performance, designate the obligation to which the prestation shall be appropriated.

ILLUSTRATION. — A owes B 200 baht for house rent
