II. — A has sold his launch to B. It was agreed that B should send a steersman to take delivery of the launch. If B does not send a steersman, B is in default from the time when A notifies him to send the steersman.

291. — No tender of performance or notification is necessary if the act of the creditor mentioned in Section 290 is to be done within a definite period of time.

If the creditor does not do the act within the period, he is in default from the end of it.

292. — No tender of performance or notification is necessary if the debtor cannot ascertain who or where the creditor is. In such cases the creditor is in default from the time when the debtor has the right to perform his obligation.

293. — A tender of performance must be in conformity with the obligation.
