

571. — If the work is delivered after the time fixed in the contract, or, if no time was fixed, after an unreasonable delay, the hirer of work is entitled, as the Court may think fit, either to a reduction of price on cancellation of the contract, with compensation if any be due.

572. — If the hirer of work has accepted the work without reservation either expressly or impliedly the contractor is no longer liable for delay in delivery or for defects, unless the defects were such as could not be discovered when the work was accepted, or they had been concealed by the contractor.

573. — If the work was done on land and its removal would be unreasonably expensive, the contract shall not be cancelled but the hirer of work shall be entitled to such reduction of price as the Court may think fit.

574. — The contractor is not liable for defects or delay caused by the hirer of work.

575. — In case of delay in delivery or of delivery of a defective work, the hirer of work is entitled to withhold the price as provided by Section 411 concerning sale.

576. — The liability of the contractor for defects is limited to the defects appearing within one year after delivery of the work.

576.—The liability of the contractor for defects is limited to the defects appearing within one year after delivery of the work.

If the work is for a structure on land other than a wooden building, the contractor is liable for the defects which may appear within five years after delivery of the work.

577. — The liability of the contractor is extinguished by prescription one year after the defect appeared.

578. — If the work is to be done by instalments and the price is fixed at so much per instalment, the agreed part of the price must be paid on delivery of each instalment.

579. — The contractor cannot claim more, nor the hirer of work pay less, than the price agreed, no matter what the actual labour was.

580. — If an estimate only was made for the work, and the price is not more than five per cent over the estimate, the hirer of work is bound to accept the work and pay the price.

If the price is more than five per cent over the estimate, the hirer of work can claim cancellation of contract.

581. — The hirer of work is bound to pay any excess of price caused by him.
