

600. — The carrier is liable for loss, damage or delay caused by the fault of passengers.

601. — If the goods are of a dangerous nature or are likely to cause injury to persons or property, the sender must declare their nature before making the contract of carriage, failing which he shall be liable for any injury caused by them.

602. — The carrier is not liable for specie, currency notes, bank notes, bills, bonds, shares, debentures, warrants, jewels and other valuables, unless he is given notice of the value or nature of such goods when they are delivered to him.

If their value is declared, the liability of the carrier is limited to such declared value.

603. — Compensation in case of delay in delivery cannot exceed the amount which could be awarded in case of total loss of the same goods.

604. — The arrival of the goods must be notified to the consignee in the manner provided by custom.

605. — No compensation is due for loss or damage discoverable from the external condition of the goods or for delay, if the goods were accepted without reservation on delivery.
