

638. — If a third person who claims a right over the property lent enters an action against the borrower or attaches the property, the borrower must forth with give notice thereof to the lender.

After the borrower has been served with a writ at the suit of the claimant or after attachment, the borrower cannot return the property, except on an order of the Court or with the consent of the parties to the case.

639. — If the parties have fixed no time for the return, the borrower must return the property after he has had the use of it for the purposes appearing from the contract, provided that the lender can claim the return as soon as a time reasonably sufficient for such use has elapsed.

ILLUSTRATION. — A has sent his launch to B who has to use it for a trip from Bangkok to Ayuthia and back.

If no time has been fixed for the return of the launch, B must return the launch to A when the trip is finished. A can claim the return of the launch when a time reasonably sufficient for the trip contemplated (say three days) has elapsed.

640. — If the parties have fixed no time for the return and the purposes of the loan do not appear from the contract, the lender can claim return at any time.

ILLUSTRATION. — If, in the foregoing illustration, A has lent his launch to B without fixing any time, and it

638.—If a third person who claims a right over the property lent enters an action against the borrower or attaches the property, the borrower must forthwith give notice thereof to the lender.

After the borrower has been served with a writ at the suit of the claimant or after attachment, the borrower cannot return the property, except on an order of the Court or with the consent of the parties to the case.

639.—If the parties have fixed no time for the return, the borrower must return the property after he has had the use of it for the purposes appearing from the contract, provided that the lender can claim the return as soon as a time reasonably sufficient for such use has elapsed.

ILLUSTRATION.—A has sent his launch to B who has to use it for a trip from Bangkok to Ayuthia and back.

If no time has been fixed for the return of the launch, B must return the launch to A when the trip is finished. A can claim the return of the launch when a time reasonably sufficient for the trip contemplated (say three days) has elapsed.

640.—If the parties have fixed no time for the return and the purposes of the loan do not appear from the contract, the lender can claim return at any time.

ILLUSTRATION.—If, in the foregoing illustration, A has lent his launch to B without fixing any time, and it