was not agreed for what purpose the launch was lent. A can claim the return of his launch at any time.

641. — Expenses for ordinary maintenance of the property lent must be borne by the borrower.

Any other charges upon the property lent must be borne by the lender.

642. — The borrower may not make any alteration in, or addition to the property lent without the permission of the lender.

643. — If the lender has granted permission to the borrower to make alterations or additions, the borrower is entitled, at the extinction of the loan, to reimbursement of his expenses up to the amount of the increase in value which the property is still deriving from the additions or alterations.

The borrower is entitled to withhold the property until such reimbursement.

See Illustrations under Sections 525, 526 and 527 mutatis mutandis.

644. — If the borrower makes additions or alterations without the permission of the lender, he is not entitled to reimbursement, but he is allowed, at the extinction of the loan, to take away whatever he added to the property, provided that he puts the property in its former condition.
