

the offer, for an order to have the mortgaged property sold by public auction, provided that he notifies his refusal to the transferee and to the other registered creditors.

The transferee can bid at the auction.

758. — If the nett proceeds of the auction are not more than the sum offered by the transferee, the creditor demanding sale shall bear the costs of the auction.

759. — If a creditor does not answer the offer of the transferee within one month from the date of the offer, the mortgage or preferential right is removed by the transferee depositing in lieu of performance the sum offered to such creditor.

760. — If the transferee who has been notified by the mortgagee of his intention to enforce the mortgage does not either perform the obligation or remove the mortgage, the mortgage is enforced against him in the same manner as if it were to be enforced against the mortgagor.

761. — Any right over the mortgaged property existing in favour of the transferee before the transfer and extinguished by merger in consequence of the transfer, shall revive in his favour when the enforcement or the removal of the mortgage results in the transfer of the ownership to another person.
