

819 — No compensation is due for loss or damage discoverable from the external condition of the goods if the goods were withdrawn without express reservation.

820. — In case of loss or damage not discoverable from the external condition of the goods, no compensation is due unless notice of loss or damage be given to the warehouseman within eight days after withdrawal.

821. — If no time for the return of the goods was fixed, the warehouseman can return the goods at any time on giving three months notice to the depositor.

822. — If the remuneration due is not paid, the warehouseman is entitled to retain the goods, provided that the depositor or the holder of the warehouse receipt may at any time apply to the Court for an order, either :

1) Restricting the exercise of this right to such part of the goods as the Court may deem sufficient to cover the remuneration, or.

9) Ordering the warehouseman to return the goods on the depositor or the holder of the warehouse receipt giving security for the remuneration.

823. — If the depositor or the holder of the warehouse receipt does not withdraw the goods at the proper time, or does not pay the remuneration due, the warehouseman can notify the depositor by registered letter to withdraw the goods and pay the remuneration within a reasonable time to be fixed in the notice.

819.—No compensation is due for loss or damage discoverable from the external condition of the goods if the goods were withdrawn without express reservation.

820.—In case of loss or damage not discoverable from the external condition of the goods, no compensation is due unless notice of loss or damage be given to the warehouseman within eight days after withdrawal.

2) Ordering the warehouseman to return the goods on the depositor or the holder of the warehouse receipt giving security for the remuneration.

823.—If the depositor or the holder of the warehouse receipt does not withdraw the goods at the proper time, or does not pay the remuneration due, the warehouseman can notify the depositor by registered letter to withdraw the goods and pay the remuneration within a reasonable time to be fixed in the notice.

If the depositor fails to comply with the notice, the warehouseman can sell the goods by public auction.

The proceeds of the public auction must be appropriated as provided by Sections 839 and 840.

CHAPTER II.

WAREHOUSE RECEIPT AND WARRANT.

824. — If required by the depositor, the warehouseman must deliver to him a warehouse receipt and a warrant.

825. — The warehouse receipt is a document by the indorsement of which the rights and liabilities of the depositor are transferred to the indorsee.

826. — The warrant is a document by the indorsement of which the goods mentioned in it may be pledged to the indorsee without being delivered to him.

827. — The warehouse receipt and the warrant must each bear a serial number and contain the following particulars :

1) The name or trade name and the address of the depositor.

2) The place of storage.

If the depositor fails to comply with the notice, the warehouseman can sell the goods by public auction.

The proceeds of the public auction must be appropriated as provided by Sections 839 and 840.
