

TITLE XIV. AGENCY.

CHAPTER I. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

844. — A contract of agency is a contract whereby a person, called the principal, directs another person, called the agent, to act for him and the agent agrees to do so.

845. — Agency may be express or implied.

846. — An employee is presumed to have an implied authority to do for his employer whatever is customary in the course of his employment.

847. — The compradore of a Bank is presumed to have no authority to bind his employer.

848. — Unless refused at once, an offer of agency is deemed to be accepted by the agent if it refers to acts to be done in the ordinary course of his business or which the agent offered to do by a notice or advertisement addressed to the public.
