

858. — If several agents have been appointed by the same principal for the same matters, it is presumed that they cannot act separately.

CHAPTER II.

DUTIES OF THE AGENT TO THE PRINCIPAL.

859. — The agent is bound to act for his principal according to the directions given by the principal or, in the absence of such directions, according to the custom and with such care as may be expected from a person of ordinary prudence.

If the agent acts otherwise, he must make compensation for any injury which the principal may sustain therefrom ; and, if any profit accrues, he must account for it to the principal.

860. — If required, the agent must at any reasonable time give information to his principal as to the condition of the matters entrusted to him.

861. — After determination or extinction of the agency, the agent must as soon as possible report to the principal how the matters have been executed.

862. The agent must transfer to the principal the rights which he has acquired in his own name but on behalf of the principal.

858.—If several agents have been appointed by the same principal for the same matters, it is presumed that they cannot act separately.
