914. — If a person, in order to pay a void gambling or betting debt, agrees to incur another obligation, such obligation is void.

But a bill subscribed or indorsed according to Title XXII on bills in order to pay a gambling or betting debt is valid in the hands of a holder in good faith.

915. — A person who has knowingly performed a gambling or betting contract is not entitled to restitution.

TITLE XVIII.

CURRENT ACCOUNT.

916. — A contract of current account is a contract whereby two persons agree that transactions between them shall be entered in a separate account and that from time to time the respective obligations shall be set off and only the difference paid.

ILLUSTRATION. — On the 1st. January 2455, A, a banker, and B agree that all the sums received or paid by A shall be entered in a separate account, the balance struck each year on the 1st. July and the difference then paid. This agreement is a contract of current account and works as follows:
