

1107. — A banker is bound to pay a cheque drawn on him by his customer unless:

- 1) There be not enough money to the credit of the account of the customer to meet the cheque, or
- 2) The cheque be presented for payment more than one year after its date of drawing.

1108. — A banker is bound to refuse payment of a cheque drawn on him if:

- 1) The drawer has countermanded payment, or
- 2) The banker has received notice of the death of the drawer, or
- 3) The cheque has been lost, or obtained through an offence and notice thereof has been given to the banker.

1109. — If the banker signs on the cheque a statement such as "good" or "good for payment," or words to the same effect, he becomes bound to pay the cheque in the same way as the acceptor of a bill of exchange.

If the statement is "good for payment on such and such day" the banker is bound to pay only if the cheque is presented on that day.

The foregoing provisions do not apply if the banker has only signed a statement certifying the genuineness of the signature of the drawer.

1110. — Whoever draws a cheque except against a deposit or a credit granted to him shall be punished with fine not exceeding two thousand baht.
