

1133. — The registration must be made at the Registration Office of that part of the Kingdom where the principal business Office of the partnership or company is situated.

Any alterations subsequently made in the registered particulars, as well as any other matters ordered or allowed to be registered by this Title must be registered at the same place.

If a fact to be registered or published happens in a foreign country, the period for its registration or publication shall be computed from the time when notice thereof arrives at the place of registration or publication.

1134. — There shall be paid in respect of registration such fees as may be provided by the regulations issued by the Minister of Justice.

1135. — If an application for registration or a document subject to registration does not contain all the particulars required by this Title to be mentioned in it, or if any of the documents prescribed to be deposited with it are not produced, or if any other condition imposed by law is not complied with, the Registrar must decline to make any entry in his register till the application or document has been completed or modified or till the prescribed documents are produced, or till the condition is fulfilled.

1136. — Every person is entitled to inspect the documents kept by the Registrar, or to require a certificate of the registration of any partnership or company, or a

1133.—The registration must be made at the Registration Office of that part of the Kingdom where the principal business office of the partnership or company is situated.

Any alterations subsequently made in the registered particulars, as well as any other matters ordered or allowed to be registered by this Title must be registered at the same place.

If a fact to be registered or published happens in a foreign country, the period for its registration or publication shall be computed from the time when notice thereof arrives at the place of registration or publication.

1134.—There shall be paid in respect of registration such fees as may be provided by the regulations issued by the Minister of Justice.

1135.—If an application for registration or a document subject to registration does not contain all the particulars required by this Title to be mentioned in it, or if any of the documents prescribed to be deposited with it are not produced, or if any other condition imposed by law is not complied with, the Registrar must decline to make any entry in his register till the application or document has been completed or modified or till the prescribed documents are produced, or till the condition is fulfilled.

1136.—Every person is entitled to inspect the documents kept by the Registrar, or to require a certificate of the registration of any partnership or company, or a certified copy or extract of any other document, to be delivered to him by the Registrar, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed by the regulations issued by the Minister of Justice.

1137. — Every Registrar shall cause to be published periodically in the Government Gazette, in the form provided by special rules to be issued by the Minister of Justice, a summary of the entries made in his register.

1138. — On such publication being made, the registered documents or matters referred to in the summary shall be deemed to be known to all persons whether connected with the partnership or company or not.

1139. — Until such ~~app~~[pub]lication has been made, no advantage can be taken by the partners, the partnership or the company against third persons of the existence of the non-registered agreements, documents or particulars, but third persons may take advantage of such existence.

However, the partner, shareholder, partnership or company who has, before such publication, received performance of an obligation is not bound to make restitution.

1140. — As between the partners or shareholders, the partners and the partnership, the shareholders and the company, all books, accounts and documents of any partnership or company or of the liquidators of any partnership or company are presumed to be correct evidence of all matters therein recorded.

certified copy or extract of any other document, to be delivered to him by the Registrar, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed by the regulations issued by the Minister of Justice.

1137.—Every Registrar shall cause to be published periodically in the Government Gazette, in the form provided by special rules to be issued by the Minister of Justice, a summary of the entries made in his register.

1138.—On such publication being made, the registered documents or matters referred to in the summary shall be deemed to be known to all persons whether connected with the partnership or company or not.

1139.—Until such ^{publ-}~~app~~lication has been made, no advantage can be taken by the partners, the partnership or the company against third persons of the existence of the non-registered agreements, documents or particulars, but third persons may take advantage of such existence.

However, the partner, shareholder, partnership or company who has, before such publication, received performance of an obligation is not bound to make restitution.

1140.—As between the partners or shareholders, the partners and the partnership, the shareholders and the company, all books, accounts and documents of any partnership or company or of the liquidators of any partnership or company are presumed to be correct evidence of all matters therein recorded.