

first and second years following the registration of the company shall be drawn by lots. In every subsequent year the directors who have been longest in office shall retire.

1285. — A retiring director is re-eligible.

1286. — If a director becomes bankrupt or incapacitated his office is vacated.

1287. — Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors otherwise than by rotation may be filled up by the directors, but any person so appointed shall retain his office during such time only as the vacating director was entitled to retain the same.

1288. — If a general meeting removes a director before the expiration of his period of office, and appoints another person in his stead, the person so appointed shall retain his office during such time only as the removed director was entitled to retain the same.

1289. — The appointment of every new director shall be registered within fourteen days from its date.

1290. — Unless otherwise provided by the regulations of the company, the directors have the powers described in the six following sections.

first and second years following the registration of the company shall be drawn by lots. In every subsequent year the directors who have been longest in office shall retire.

1285.—A retiring director is re-eligible.

1286.—If a director becomes bankrupt or incapacitated his office is vacated.

1287.—Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors otherwise than by rotation may be filled up by the directors, but any person so appointed shall retain his office during such time only as the vacating director was entitled to retain the same.

1288. —If a general meeting removes a director before the expiration of his period of office, and appoints another person in his stead, the person so appointed shall retain his office during such time only as the removed director was entitled to retain the same.

1289.—The appointment of every new director shall be registered within fourteen days from its date.

1290.—Unless otherwise provided by the regulations of the company, the directors have the powers described in the six following sections.