

TITLE XXIII. ASSOCIATIONS.

1430. — A contract of association is a contract whereby several persons agree to unite for a common undertaking other than that of sharing profits.

1431. — Every association must have regulations and must be registered.

1432. — The regulations must specify at least :

- 1) The name of the association.
- 2) Its object.
- 3) The address of its principal office.
- 4) Rules for the admission and exclusion of members.
- 5) Rules for the management of the association by committees, directors or otherwise.

1433. — The application for registration must be made in writing and signed by three of the members of the association at least. It must be accompanied by three copies of the regulations.

1434. — The offices for the registration of associations shall be established by regulations issued by the Minister responsible for the local administration.

TITLE XXIII.

ASSOCIATIONS.

1430.— A contract of association is a contract whereby several persons agree to unite for a common undertaking other than that of sharing profits.

1431.—Every association must have regulations and must be registered.

1432.—The regulations must specify at least :

- 1) The name of the association.
- 2) Its object.
- 3) The address of its principal office.
- 4) Rules for the admission and exclusion of members.
- 5) Rules for the management of the association by committees, directors or otherwise.

1433.—The application for registration must be made in writing and signed by three of the members of the association at least. It must be accompanied by three copies of the regulations.

1434.—The offices for the registration of associations shall be established by regulations issued by the Minister responsible for the local administration.