

18. — The right to apply for an order of the Court or to claim compensation in connection with the unlawful use of a name is extinguished by prescription one year after the day when the plaintiff knew of the use, or five years after the day when the use began.

CHAPTER III.

SIGNATURE.

19. — If a person is in the habit of affixing a seal in lieu of signature, the affixing of such seal is equivalent to a signature.

20. — A finger print, cross or other such mark affixed to a document is equivalent to a signature if it is certified by the signature of two witnesses.

CHAPTER IV.

WITNESSES.

21. — Whenever the law requires that a document, signature, finger print, mark of statement be certified by witnesses, the witnesses shall sign it. Only such persons may be witnesses as are of full age and know how to sign.

CHAPTER V.

RESIDENCE.

22. — The residence of a person is the place where such person dwells.

23. — When a person is engaged in a trade or business his residence, for all purposes connected with his

18.—The right to apply for an order of the Court or to claim compensation in connection with the unlawful use of a name is extinguished by prescription one year after the day when the plaintiff knew of the use, or five years after the day when the use began.

CHAPTER III.

SIGNATURE.

19.—If a person is in the habit of affixing a seal in lieu of signature, the affixing of such seal is equivalent to a signature.

20.—A finger print, cross or other such mark affixed to a document is equivalent to a signature if it is certified by the signature of two witnesses.

CHAPTER IV.

WITNESSES.

21.—Whenever the law requires that a document, signature, finger print, mark of statement be certified by witnesses, the witnesses shall sign it. Only such persons may be witnesses as are of full age and know how to sign.

CHAPTER V.

RESIDENCE.

22.—The residence of a person is the place where such person dwells.

23.—When a person is engaged in a trade or business his residence, for all purposes connected with his trade or business, is the place where he exercises that trade or business.

CHAPTER VI.

DISAPPEARANCE.

24. — If a person has left his residence and it is uncertain whether he is living or dead, the Public Prosecutor or any interested person may, after one year has elapsed from the latest intelligence received, apply to the Court for an order appointing a manager of the property of that person.

25 — If the absent person had appointed an agent with general authority, the application provided by the foregoing section shall be granted only if it appears that the management of the property by the agent is likely to cause injury to the absent person.

26. — The agent appointed with general authority by the absent person may apply to the Court for an extension of his authority if it is necessary to do any act which is beyond the scope of such authority.

27. — The manager appointed by the Court must make an inventory of the property of the absent person at the time when he assumes its management; such inventory shall be made in the presence of, and signed by, two witnesses.

28. — The manager has the powers of an agent with general authority as described in the Book on Obligations.

He can, with the previous consent of the Court, do trade or business, is the place where he exercises that trade or business.

CHAPTER VI.

DISAPPEARANCE.

24.--If a person has left his residence and it is uncertain whether he is living or dead, the Public Prosecutor or any interested person may, after one year has elapsed from the latest intelligence received, apply to the Court for an order appointing a manager of the property of that person.

25 —If the absent person had appointed an agent with general authority, the application provided by the foregoing section shall be granted only if it appears that the management of the property by the agent is likely to cause injury to the absent person.

26.—The agent appointed with general authority by the absent person may apply to the Court for an extension of his authority if it is necessary to do any act which is beyond the scope of such authority.

27.—The manager appointed by the Court must make an inventory of the property of the absent person at the time when he assumes its management; such inventory shall be made in the presence of, and signed by, two witnesses.

28.—The manager has the powers of an agent with general authority as described in the Book on Obligations.

He can, with the previous consent of the Court, do