56. — The parent who exercises parental power cannot enter into any contract with the minor, except with the consent of the Court.

The Court shall not give its consent unless it is satisfied that the contract will benefit the minor.

57. — The parent who exercises parental power cannot dispose gratuitously of the property of the minor except for performing on his behalf religious or social duties, according to custom.

58. — The parent who exercises parental power cannot do on behalf of the minor an act which by reason of its nature cannot be done through a representative, such as marrying, or making a will, or tendering an oath.

59. — An act done by the parent who exercises parental power without the consent of the Court, when such consent was required (S. 55 and 56), is voidable.

The following persons only can claim cancellation of such act or ratify it:

- 1) A new lawful representative of the minor, provided he is acting with the consent of the Court, or
- 2) The minor himself, after he has become of full age, or
- 3) His heirs.
