PERSONS OF UNSOUND MIND.

I.—REPRESENTATION OF PERSONS OF UNSOUND MIND.

82.—A person of unsound mind must be provided with a lawful representative.

83.—The lawful representative of a person of unsound mind who is married is his or her spouse.

If the person of unsound mind is not married, his lawful representative is his father or, if he has no father, his mother or, if he has no parents, his guardian.

84. — The guardian of a person of unsound mind shall be the person who assumes such position by voluntarily taking care of his person and property.

85. — If no person voluntarily assumes the guardianship, a guardian shall be appointed by the Court, of its own motion or on the application of the Public Prosecutor or of any interested person.

86. — The order of the Court appointing a guardian to a person of unsound mind shall be published in the Government Gazette by the care of the Court.

87. — A guardian may refuse or resign the guardianship.

88. — The Court may, of its own motion or on the application of the Public Prosecutor or of any interested person, remove a lawful representative for a reasonable cause and appoint another lawful representative in his stead.

89. — The duties of the lawful representative of a person of unsound mind are to take care of him, to support him, to keep him in safe custody if necessary, and to manage his property.

II. — MANAGEMENT OF THE PROPERTY OF A PERSON OF UNSOUND MIND BY HIS LAWFUL REPRESENTATIVE.

90. — The Court may order that the guardian of a person of unsound mind shall receive a remuneration, to be paid out of the property of such person.

91. — The power of management and representation

no father, his mother or, if he has no parents, his guardian.

84. — The guardian of a person of unsound mind shall be the person who assumes such position by voluntarily taking care of his person and property.
