

23. — The acquirer of an immovable from an original owner who is known is entitled to require from him his assistance for the registration.

24. — The Land Register shall contain a complete record of all rights and interests on the lands and buildings, of any transfer of ownership, and of lease over three years, mortgages, servitudes, preferential rights.

Immovables included in the public domain of the State are not registered in the Land Register unless real rights be created upon such immovables.

S. 912, 943, 944, 958.

25. — The organization of Land Register and the formalities and proceedings concerning registration or cancellation, publicity, etc. are regulated by the special law relating thereto.

(Cf. S. Title XXV.)

26. — Ships or vessels having displacement of and over six tons, steam-launches or motor-boats having displacement of and over five tons, floating-houses and beasts of burden can be acquired only by registration of the rights of the owner, in the same manner and conditions as immovables.

27. — The acquisition of ownership on movables other than those specified in the foregoing section cannot be set up against third persons unless the acquirer or transferee has taken possession of such movables.

J. 178.

23.—The acquirer of an immovable from an original owner who is known is entitled to require from him his assistance for the registration.

24.—The Land Register shall contain a complete record of all rights and interests on the lands and buildings, of any transfer of ownership, and of lease over three years, mortgages, servitudes, preferential rights.

Immovables included in the public domain of the State are not registered in the Land Register unless real rights be created upon such immovables.

S. 942, 943, 944, 958.

25.—The organization of Land Register and the formalities and proceedings concerning registration or cancellation, publicity, etc. are regulated by the special law relating thereto.

(Cf. S. Title XXV.)

26.—Ships or vessels having displacement of and over six tons, steam-launches or motor-boats having displacement of and over five tons, floating-houses and beasts of burden can be acquired only by registration of the rights of the owner, in the same manner and conditions as immovables.

27.—The acquisition of ownership on movables other than those specified in the foregoing section cannot be set up against third persons unless the acquirer or transferee has taken possession of such movables.

J. 178.