

91. — When (before payment to a party entitled to indemnity, or before the expiration of the period of six months provided in the foregoing section) any dispute arises as to the ownership of the property subject to expropriation, or as to the assignment or division of the indemnity, the Expropriation Commissioners or the Ministry or Department in charge as the case may be, shall try and settle amicably with all the parties in dispute the amount of indemnity.

- (1) In case an agreement is come to regarding the amount of the indemnity, the amount so agreed upon shall be deposited in a Law Court. On such deposit being made, the Ministry or Department in charge shall have the right to take possession of the property.
- (2) In case no agreement is come to regarding the amount of the indemnity, the Ministry or Department in charge shall notify its final offer in writing to the parties in dispute. Should such offer not be accepted by all the parties in dispute within ten days from date of the notification each party shall have the right to appoint an arbitrator; and, in the case where such arbitrators cannot come to an agreement the arbitrators shall either appoint an umpire or apply to the Court to have an umpire appointed by it, subject to the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code.

91.— When (before payment to a party entitled to indemnity, or before the expiration of the period of six months provided in the foregoing section) any dispute arises as to the ownership of the property subject to expropriation, or as to the assignment or division of the indemnity, the Expropriation Commissioners or the Ministry or Department in charge as the case may be, shall try and settle amicably with all the parties in dispute the amount of indemnity.

- (1) In case an agreement is come to regarding the amount of the indemnity, the amount so agreed upon shall be deposited in a Law Court. On such deposit being made, the Ministry or Department in charge shall have the right to take possession of the property.
- (2) In case no agreement is come to regarding the amount of the indemnity, the Ministry or Department in charge shall notify its final offer in writing to the parties in dispute. Should such offer not be accepted by all the parties in dispute within ten days from date of the notification each party shall have the right to appoint an arbitrator; and, in the case where such arbitrators cannot come to an agreement the arbitrators shall either appoint an umpire or apply to the Court to have an umpire appointed by it, subject to the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code.

When the dispute arises after payment to a party entitled to indemnity or after the expiration of the period of six months provided in the foregoing section, claims can be exercised only against the persons who received the indemnity or in whose names the deposit was made.

92. — In case the amount of indemnity is to be settled by arbitration, the Court shall, on application made at any time by the Ministry or Department in charge, authorize such Ministry or Department to take possession of the land or other immovable ; subject to the deposit of such sum as the Court think likely sufficient to secure the payment of indemnity.

93. — If the party entitled to indemnity refuses to receive it as fixed by agreement or by arbitration, the Ministry or Department in charge shall have the right to take possession of the land or other immovable on depositing the amount of such indemnity in a Law Court.

94. — If the owner or occupant of the land or other immovable refuses to let the Ministry or Department in charge take possession thereof when it is entitled by this Title to do so, the Court shall, on application of the said Ministry or Department, issue an Order of ejectment to be enforced at once, without prejudice to any judicial proceedings which may be instituted by the owner or occupant.

When the dispute arises after payment to a party entitled to indemnity or after the expiration of the period of six months provided in the foregoing section, claims can be exercised only against the persons who received the indemnity or in whose names the deposit was made.

92.—In case the amount of indemnity is to be settled by arbitration, the Court shall, on application made at any time by the Ministry or Department in charge, authorize such Ministry or Department to take possession of the land or other immovable ; subject to the deposit of such sum as the Court think likely sufficient to secure the payment of indemnity.

93.—If the party entitled to indemnity refuses to receive it as fixed by agreement or by arbitration, the Ministry or Department in charge shall have the right to take possession of the land or other immovable on depositing the amount of such indemnity in a Law Court.

94.—If the owner or occupant of the land or other immovable refuses to let the Ministry or Department in charge take possession thereof when it is entitled by this Title to do so, the Court shall, on application of the said Ministry or Department, issue an Order of ejectment to be enforced at once, without prejudice to any judicial proceedings which may be instituted by the owner or occupant.